

Rough Draft bar & books

STORE POLICIES

Thank you for your interest in Rough Draft! Please note that, for books and merchandise, refunds will be issued for store credit only and only within 30 days of sale. Books must be in new, unread condition. At the bar, any credit-card tabs left open at the end of the night will be assessed, and a 20% gratuity will be added.

If you are an author or publicist and would like us to stock your book or hold an event, please email us at roughdraftbar@gmail.com and include your book's title, ISBN, publisher, availability via Ingram, a brief summary or a link to its description, and whether you or your book has a connection to Kingston or the Catskills/Hudson Valley. If you are self-published or published by a small press, your book must be available on Ingram on a returnable basis with Ingram's "regular" discount.

Please note that, because of our unique (and often noisy) combination bookstore/bar/coffee shop, we limit author readings to very specific dates and times, and to authors we know customers will come out for and give their undivided attention. We are, however, happy to host book signings for local authors whose books are available on a returnable basis from our wholesaler (Ingram), or who can bring books to their signing and sell them under our consignment agreement. Because of our limited resources and shelf space, we rarely accept books on a consignment basis outside of special events.

If we are interested in stocking your book or considering it for an event, we may ask to review a copy first. You can drop one at the shop for consideration, but please ALSO send us an email, and understand that we will not be available immediately to make a decision. After we get back to you with a response, you are responsible for picking up your book(s) from the shop within 30 days. Books left beyond this time will be donated to a local charity.

We occasionally host musicians (acoustic only) at Rough Draft. If you are interested in playing here, please email us and let us know where we can hear your music, what kind of set you have in mind, how you plan to promote your appearance locally, and what dates you'll be in our area. We can also host private or semi-private events; please email about availability and rates.

We look forward to hearing from you!
